Google

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

NOTE No. 3.—Where there are no public quarters furnished, a commutation is allowed. Officers on shore duty are allowed a commutation for fuel.

NOTE.—The sea and other service affixed to the names of officers in the Register is computed to the 1st January, 1860. As a general rule, the "sea service" with which an officer is credited, is for duty performed under orders from the Department, as part of the complement of a vessel-of-war, belonging to the Navy, in commission for sea service. Officers on the Coast Survey are allowed sea service only for the time they are actually afloat. No credit is given for service in Revenue and Merchant vessels. In the column "unemployed," is included the time between date of warrant and date of first order from the Department for service.

☞ The attention of officers is particularly called to the Orders and Regulations published in the latter part of the Register.

LAWS.

AN ACT FOR THE BETTER GOVERNMENT OF THE NAVY OF THE UNITED STATES.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the first day of June next, the following rules and regulations be adopted and put in force, for the government of the navy of the United States:

Article 1. The commanders of all ships and vessels-of-war belonging to the navy are strictly enjoined and required to show in themselves a good example of virtue, honor, patriotism, and subordination, and be vigilant in inspecting the conduct of all such as are placed under their command, and to guard against and suppress all dissolute and immoral practices, and to correct all such as are guilty of them, according to the usage of the sea-service.

Art. 2. The commanders of all ships and vessels in the navy, having chaplains on board, shall take care that divine service be performed in a solemn, orderly, and reverent manner, twice a day, and a sermon preached on Sunday, unless bad weather or other extraordinary accidents prevent it; and that they cause all, or as many of the ship's company as can be spared from duty, to attend at every performance of the worship of Almighty God.

Art. 3. Any officer or other person in the navy who shall be guilty of oppression, cruelty, fraud, profane swearing, drunkenness, or any other scandalous conduct, tending to the destruction of good morals, shall, if an officer, be cashiered, or suffer such other punishment as a court-martial shall adjudge; if a private, shall be put in irons or flogged, at the discretion of the captain, not exceeding twelve lashes; but if the offence require severer punishment, he shall be tried by a court-martial, and suffer such punishment as said court shall inflict.

Art. 4. Every commander or other officer who shall, upon signal for battle, or on the probability of an engagement, neglect to clear his ship for action, or shall not use his utmost exertions to bring his ship to battle, or shall fail to encourage, in his own person, his inferior officers and men to fight courageously, such offender shall suffer death, or such other punishment as a court-martial shall adjudge; or any officer neglecting, on sight of any vessel or vessels of an enemy, to clear his ship for action, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial shall adjudge; and if any person in the navy shall treacherously yield, or pusillanimously cry for quarters, he shall suffer death, on conviction thereof by a general court-martial.

Art. 5. Every officer or private who shall not properly observe the orders of his commanding officer, or shall not use his utmost exertions to carry them into execution, when ordered to prepare for, join in, or when actually engaged in battle; or shall at such time basely desert his duty or station, either then or while in sight of an enemy, or shall induce others to do so, every person so offending shall, on conviction thereof by a general court-martial, suffer death, or such other punishment as the said court shall adjudge.

Art. 6. Every officer or private who shall, through cowardice, negligence, or disaffection, in time of action, withdraw from or keep out of battle, or shall not do his utmost to take or destroy every vessel which it is his duty to encounter, or shall not do his utmost endeavor to afford relief to ships belonging to the United States, every such offender shall, on conviction thereof by a general court-martial, suffer death, or such other punishment as the said court shall adjudge.

Art. 7. The commanding officer of every ship or vessel in the navy, who shall capture or seize upon any vessel as a prize, shall carefully preserve all the papers and writing found on board, and transmit the whole of the originals, unmutilated, to the judge of the district to which such prize is ordered to proceed, and shall transmit to the Navy Department, and the agent appointed to pay the prize money, complete lists of the officers and men entitled to a share of the capture, inserting therein the quality of every person rating, on pain of forfeiting his whole share of the prize money resulting from such capture, and suffering such further punishment as a court-martial shall adjudge.

Art. 8. No person in the navy shall take out of a prize, or vessel seized as a prize, any money, plate, goods, or any part of her rigging, unless it be for the better preservation thereof, or absolutely necessary for the use of any of the vessels of the United States, before the same shall be adjudged lawful prize by a competent court; but the whole, without fraud, concealment, or embezzlement, shall be brought in, and judgment passed thereon, upon pain that every person offending herein shall forfeit his share of the capture, and suffer such further punishment as a court-martial, or the court of admiralty in which the prize is adjudged, shall impose.

Art 9. No person in the navy shall strip of their clothes, or pillage, or in any manner maltreat, persons taken on board a prize, on pain of such punishment as a court-martial shall adjudge.

Art. 10. No person in the navy shall give, hold, or entertain any intercourse or intelligence to or with any enemy or rebel, without leave from the President of the United States, the Secretary of the Navy, the commander-in-chief of the fleet, or the commander of a squadron; or, in case of a vessel acting singly, from his commanding officer, on pain of death, or such other punishment as a court-martial shall adjudge.

Art. 11. If any letter or message from an enemy or rebel be conveyed to any officer or private of the navy, and he shall not within twelve hours make the same known, having opportunity so to do, to his superior or commanding officer; or if any officer commanding a ship or vessel, being acquainted therewith, shall not, with all convenient speed, reveal the same to the commander-in-chief of the fleet, commander of a squadron, or other proper officer, whose duty it may be to take cognizance thereof, every such offender shall suffer death, or such other punishment as a court-martial shall adjudge.

Art. 12. Spies, and all persons who shall come or be found in the capacity of spies, or who shall bring or deliver any seducing letter or message from an enemy or rebel, or endeavor to corrupt any person in the navy to betray his trust, shall suffer death, or such other punishment as a court-martial shall adjudge.

Art. 13. If any person in the navy shall make, or attempt to make, any mutinous assembly, he shall, on conviction thereof by a court-martial, suffer death; and if any person as aforesaid shall utter any seditious or mutinous words, or shall conceal or connive at any mutinous or seditious practices, or shall treat with contempt his superior, being in the execution of his office; or, being witness to any mutiny or sedition, shall not do his utmost to suppress it, he shall be punished at the discretion of a court-martial.

Art. 14. No officer or private in the navy shall disobey the lawful orders of his superior officer, or strike him, or draw, or offer to draw, or raise, any weapon against him while in the execution of the duties of his office, on pain of death, or such other punishment as a court-martial shall inflict.

"I, A B., do swear [or affirm] that I will truly try, without prejudice or partiality, the case now depending, according to the evidence which shall come before the court, the rules for the government of the navy, and my own conscience; and that I will not by any means divulge or disclose the sentence of the court, until it shall have been approved by the proper authority, nor will I at any time divulge or disclose the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court, unless required so to do before a court of justice in due course of law."

This oath or affirmation being duly administered, the president is authorized and required to administer the following oath or affirmation to the judge advocate, or person officiating as such:

"I, A. B., do swear [or affirm] that I will keep a true record of the evidence given to and the proceedings of this court; nor will I divulge or by any means disclose the sentence of the court until it shall have been approved by the proper authority; nor will I at any time divulge or disclose the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court, unless required so to do before a court of justice in due course of law.

Every officer so arrested is to deliver up his sword to his commanding officer, and to confine himself to the limits assigned him, under pain of dismission from service.

Art. 39. When the proceedings of any general court-martial shall have commenced, they shall not be suspended or delayed on account of the absence of any of the members, provided five or more be assembled; but the court is enjoined to sit from day to day, Sundays excepted, until sentence be given. And no member of said court shall, after the proceedings are begun, absent himself therefrom, unless in case of sickness, or orders to go on duty from a superior officer, on pain of being cashiered.

Art 40. Whenever a court-martial shall sentence an officer to be suspended, the court shall have the power to suspend his pay and emoluemnts for the whole, or any part of the time of his suspension.

A court-martial shall not, for any one offence not capital, inflict a punishment beyond one hundred lashes.

Art. 42. The President of the United States, or, when the trial takes place out of the United States, the commander of the fleet or squadron, shall possess full power to pardon any offence committed against these articles, after conviction, or to mitigate the punishment decreed by a court-martial.

"You do swear, [or affirm,] truly to record the proceedings of this court, and the evidence to be given in the case in hearing."

ships or vessels shall remain and be in full force as effectually as if such ship or vessel were not so wrecked, lost, or destroyed, until such ship's company be regularly discharged from, or ordered again into, the service, or until a court-martial shall be held to inquire into the loss of such ship or vessel; and if, by the sentence of such court, or other satisfactory evidence, it shall appear that all or any of the officers and men of such ship's company did their utmost to preserve her, and after the loss thereof behaved themselves agreeably to the diclipline of the navy, then the pay and emoluments of such officers and men, or such of them as shall have done their duty as aforesaid, shall go on until their discharge or death; and every officer or private who shall, after the loss of such vessel, act contrary to the discipline of the navy, shall be punished, at the discretion of a court martial, in the same manner as if such vessel had not been so lost.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all the pay and emoluments of such officers and men, of any of the ships or vessels of the United States taken by an enemy, who shall appear by the sentence of a court-martial, or otherwise, to have done their utmost to preserve and defend their ship or vessel, and after taking thereof, have behaved themselves obediently to their superiors, agreeably to the disipline of the navy, shall go on, and be paid them until their death, exchange, or discharge.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds of all ships and vessels, and the goods taken on board of them, which shall be adjudged good prize, shall, when of equal or superior force to the vessel or vessels making the capture, be the sole property of the captors; and when of inferior force, shall be divided equally between the United States and the officers and men making the capture.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That summary courts-martial may be ordered upon petty officers and persons of inferior ratings by the commander of any vessel in the navy to which such persons belong, for the trial of offences which he may deem deserving of greater punishment than the commander of a vessel himself is by law authorized to inflict of his own authority, but not sufficient to require trial by general court-martial.

EMPLOYMENT OF MECHANICS TO REPAIR MERCHANT VESSELS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, July, 1840.

The practice of allowing the mechanics employed at the several navy yards, and on board ships on foreign stations to repair vessels belonging to the merchant service of the United States, will in future be limited to cases where a refusal to do so would of necessity impose injurious delays or greatly increase the expenses upon the merchant vessel. In such cases the mechanics shall make no demand for any compensation, but receive only such as the owner, assignee, or master of such merchant vessel shall choose to give, and their commander is willing they should take. Officers of the navy, in like cases, shall neither claim nor receive any compensation whatever.

In all cases of distress, gratuitous assistance is to be given as heretofore, to the fullest extent practicable.

PRESENTATIONS OF SWORDS, &C., PROHIBITED.

The practice of presenting swords, plate, or other things of value from inferior officers or from crews, to their superior or commanding officer, in the way of compliment; and all votes or resolutions, whether of praise or censure, from inferiors to superiors, are injurious to discipline and of evil tendency in other respects. They are therefore strictly forbidden.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, December 15, 1841.

Whenever an officer shall be arrested on a foreign station, it shall be the duty of the commander-in-chief of the station to order a court for his trial as soon as possible after he shall be notified of the arrest, and this he shall not refuse or delay, except for imperative reasons connected with the public service.

If such imperative reasons shall exist, so that a court martial cannot be detailed and actually sit for the trial of the accused, his arrest may continue for thirty days after the commander-in-chief of the station shall be notified thereof, and no longer, and the accused shall then be returned to duty, unless, for sufficient reasons, the commander-in-chief shall otherwise direct; but he shall be again arrested, and shall be tried as soon as the condition of the service will admit of it.

No officer arrested on a foreign station shall be confined to his room nor restrained from the proper use of any part of the ship in which, before his arrest, he had a right to be, except the quarter-deck, unless such restraint shall be necessary for the safety of the ship, or the preservation of the good order and dsicipline, and eveu in that case, he shall be no further restrained than shall be necessary.

RIGHTS AND POWERS OF COMMANDERS OF SQUADRONS AND CAPTAINS OF FLAG-SHIPS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, April 22, 1842.

The frequent misunderstanding which have occurred between the commanders-in-chief of squadrons and the captains of their flag ships, on the subject of their respective rights and powers; misunderstandings which result only from the fact that their true relation to each other has not yet been properly defined, have suggested to the department the propriety of expressing its own views upon the subject. The following general rule embraces these views:

The commander-in-chief of a squadron, having in command of his flag ship an officer of equal grade with himself, holds the same relation to that ship as to every other ship of his squadron.

While it is impossible to specify all the powers of a commander-in-chief over the ship which bears his flag, or of the captain of a flag ship in subordination to the power of the commander-in-chief, a due observance of the spirit of the above rule will go far to prevent any conflict or collision between those officers.

The dignity of a commander-in-chief is lessened by his engaging in the details of duty of his particular ship, and the respect which ought to attach to the immediate captain of the ship is weakened by any interference with him in the rightful exercise of his authority.

The commander-in-chief of a squadron will find the best support to his own dignity and importance in maintaining the dignity and importance of the officers who are subordinate to him. While, therefore, his superiority must be always admitted, and his authority respected and obeyed, a due and prudent regard to the limitation above indicated, will tend strongly to preserve the discipline and harmony of the service.

REGULATION.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMMANDERS OF STEAM VESSELS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, February 26, 1845.

Commanders of steam vessels will cause the following orders to be carried into effect in the vessels under their command, in addition to the general orders and regulations which apply to sailing vessels, or to the general service of the Navy.

First. Steam Engineers of the Navy, when embarked in vessels, are to conform to the orders of the commanding officer of the vessel, and of the officer of the watch for the time being; but they are not, except in cases of great emergency, to be ordered to perform other duties than those immediately connected with the preservation, repair, or management of the engines and their dependencies.

Second. When practicable, one engineer at least is always to be on duty in the engine room whenever the fires are lighted; and when more than one engineer is attached to the vessel, one must be on board at all times ready for duty.

Third. The engineers, firemen, and coal heavers are to be arranged in watches, and when on watch are to be under the immediate direction of the engineer of the watch, and are not to be ordered on other duties than those connected with the engines, boilers, and their dependencies, except in cases of emergency.

Fourth. The senior engineer is to prepare and submit, for the approval of the commander, bills showing the specific duties of the respective engineers, firemen, and coal-heavers in their watches, for attending to, and for cleaning the different parts of the engines and their dependencies, and he will give particular attention that the prescribed duties are performed in a proper manner, and, in case of misconduct or neglect, report offenders to the officer of the watch, or to the commander of the vessel, as the case may require.

Fifth. When the engines are in operation, reports are to be made hourly to the officer of the deck, whether the engines and their dependencies are in good order, and immediate notice must be given him, at any time, if anything should occur to require a change in the orders under which the engineer is then acting, or special attention to any particular object, to insure safety or more efficiency.

Sixth, The firemen are to be instructed as far as may be practicable, to qualify them for managing the engines and dependencies with safety, in case accident or other cause should prevent the attendance of an engineer

Seventh. The senior engineer on board must examine daily the engines and their dependencies, and all parts of the vessel which are occupied by them, or by stores for their use, and make immediate report should any defect or danger be discovered. He must give timely notice to the commander of the vessel of the probable wants of his department, and whenever articles are received for it, must carefully examine if they are of proper quality, and report any which, in his opinion, may be objectionable.

Eighth. Upon the arrival of a steamer in port, an early inspection is to be made by the senior engineer, to ascertain if the engines, boilers, or their dependencies require repairs or cleaning, and will report forthwith to the commander of the vessel.

Ninth. When repairs or cleaning are required for the engines or boilers, they are to be made, as far as practicable, by the engineers, firemen, and coal-heavers of the vessel, and they are to be employed on such duties in preference to coaling, if both should be necessary at the same time

Tenth. The force-pumps, hose, and all other means for extinguishing fires must be always kept in good order and ready for immediate use, and so reported at the end of each watch by the engineer on duty, and the utmost care must be taken at all times in the arrangement of stores, the use of lights and fires, and the adoption of other precautionary measures to prevent the danger from fire, to which steamers are so much exposed.

Eleventh. A steam-log is always to be kept when the vessel is moved by steam, which log is to be signed in the "column of remarks" by the engineers of the respective watches, at the expiration of their watch and at noon of each day by the senior engineer of the vessel.

Twelfth. The engineer of the watch will be careful to note hourly on the steam-log all the information which the columns in it require, and to place in the "column of remarks" full information of the state of the weather and sea, and any accidents to, or defects in the engines or their dependencies, the quality of the coal, or other circumstances, which may be useful for determining the powers and qualities of the vessel, and the engines, under the various circumstances to which they may be exposed He will carefully note in it the draught of water of the vessel and immersion of the bucket-boards, just before going to sea and on arriving in port, and frequently when receiving coal or other stores.

Thirteenth. The steam log-book is to be handed to the commander of the vessel daily, by the senior engineer on board; and it shall be the duty of the said commander to examine the same, and when satisfied of its correctness to sign it at the end of every calendar month, or oftener should the vessel in the mean time arrive at or anchor in any port.

Fourteenth. Steam log-books, calculated to contain the log for one quarter of a year, and hydrometers, will be deposited at the respective navy yards, for the use of steamers, upon proper requisitions. The commander of the vessel must transmit to the Secretary of the Navy, by the first safe opportunity after the close of the months of March, June, September, and December, the steam log-book for the preceding quarter, and whenever a steamer is placed in ordinary, for the period which has not been previously transmitted.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, August 1, 1847.

No firemen or coal-heavers shall be shipped, as such, until they have passed a satisfactory examination, by one or more Medical Officers of the Navy, in respect to their health and vigor; nor shall firemen be so shipped until they have passed a satisfactory examination by one or more Engineer Officers of the Navy, upon their ability to manage fires properly with different kinds of fuel, and to use skilfully smiths' tools in the repair and preservation of steam machinery and boilers.

The firemen of the Navy shall hereafter be divided into two classes; and, until further orders, the pay of the first class shall be at the rate of thirty dollars a month; the pay of the second class at the rate of twenty dollars; and the pay of coal-heavers shall be at the rate of fifteen dollars, with one ration a day to each.

Should any fireman or coal-heaver neglect his duties, or be unable to perform them, the commanding officer of the squadron, or, in his absence, the commanding officer of the vessels to which such fireman or coal heaver belongs, may, if he deems it necessary, direct another person to perform them during the continuance of such neglect or disability, or until the place is supplied by a person of the proper rating; and the person so appointed shall receive the pay of the situation which he may thus fill. But the commanding officer shall, when it is practicable, direct second class firemen to succeed or supply the places of the first class; and the coal-heavers, if qualified, shall take the place of the second class firemen in preference to other persons.

Firemen and coal-heavers, when unable to perform their duties, or when they neglect them, shall receive only a reduced pay—that is, firemen of the first class shall only receive the pay of firemen of the second; those of the second the pay of coal-heavers; and coal-heavers the pay of seamen so long as they neglect their duties, or are unable to perform them, or until duly discharged from the service.

* It is to be understood, as a part of the conditions on which firemen and coal-heavers enter the Navy, that, in case any right to a pension should occur before any action of Congress shall be had on the subject, the rate of pension to a first class fireman shall not exceed that to which a boatswain's mate would be entitled; that of a second class fireman, the same as for a quartermaster; and that of a coal-heaver, the same as for a seaman.

Firemen and coal-heavers should be shipped on articles which refer to these regulations, which shall, in all cases, be read to them before they sign the articles.

Firemen of the first class shall be eligible to promotion to the rank of Third Assistant Engineers; second class firemen, to the grade of first class; and coal-heavers, to the grade of firemen.

MEDICAL SURVEYS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, December 22, 1854.

The 2d section of the General Order of the department, approved September 27, 1851, prescribing the manner of holding medical surveys, is hereby revoked, and the following is substituted in lieu thereof:

DECISION.

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, February 14, 1855.

The exception in favor of "Executive Officers," when on duty, made in the General Orders of the Navy Department of August 31, 1846, and May 27, 1847, which orders were legalized by act of August 5, 1854, is construed to apply to said officers while in the discharge of their military duties on board the vessel at the station to which they are attached, but not on any other occasion.

J. C. DOBBIN, Secretary of the Navy.

CIRCULAR.

DISBURSEMENTS BY PURSERS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, March 20, 1855.

The 2d section of the "Joint Resolution for the relief of Pursers, &c.," approved March 3, 1849, provides "that every disbursement of public moneys, or disposal of public stores, made by order of any commanding officer of the Navy, which shall be objected to by the accounting officers of the Treasury, in the settlement of the accounts of any disbursing officer, shall nevertheless be allowed to such disbursing officer; and the commanding officer by whose order such disbursement or disposal was made, shall be held accountable for the same."

This enactment does not authorize an advance of publlic money by the purser to the commanding officer, or to any other person, on his order. The disbursement presupposes an indebtedness, and whether the objects for which the indebtedness accrued were sanctioned or not by law or regulation, the purser would be entitled to a credit for payment therefor, when made by order of the commanding officer. But the disbursement must be for some service rendered, or article furnished. For instance: if a clerk, not allowed by law, be employed, or if an excess of the regulation-complement of cabin furniture, or if unauthorized provisions or stores of any kind be purchased, by direction of the commander, and by his order the purser has paid for such unauthorized service or supplies, the purser will receive a credit for the payment, and the commander will be held accountable.

In regard to advances or loans, however, the laws of January 21, 1823, and August 26, 1842, are not repealed or modified by the Joint Resolution of 1849. The 6th section of the act of August 26, 1842, declares, "that it shall not be lawful for a purser in the Navy to advance or loan any sum or sums of money, public or private, or any article or commodity whatever, or any credit, to any officer in the Naval service, under any pretence whatever." To allow a purser to advance or loan to a commanding officer on his simple order the funds provided for the expenses of the ship and wages of the crew, would be dangerous to the service and unsafe for the Treasury, leaving an open door for collusion and fraud. No credits will be allowed to pursers for advances or loans hereafter made by orders of commanding officers, no matter how frequent or peremptory such orders may be.

Approved: J. C. DOBBIN, Secretary of the Navy.

GENERAL ORDER.

SUMMARY COURTS-MARTIAL.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, April 4, 1855.

In conformity with the 9th section of the "Act to provide a more efficient discipline for the navy," approved March 2, 1855, the following regulations have been submitted to and approved by the President of the United States, and will be observed by summary courts-martial convened under the authority of the said act:

1. Summary courts-martial will adopt the same forms of proceeding and rules of evidence as naval general courts-martial, so far as they shall be applicable and not inconsistent with the conciseness and precision enjoined by the law, nor with the provisions of this General Order.

2. The form of convening a summary court-martial will be by a brief written order addressed by the commander of the vessel to the senior member of the court, stating the names and rank of the members of the court, and of the recorder, and the time and place of meeting; and by written or verbal orders to the other members of the court and the recorder. The written order to the senior member will be appended to the record of the proceedings.

3. The record will state that the oath prescribed by the law was duly administered to each member and to the recorder, in the presence of the accused.

4. If objection is made by the accused to any member of the court, it will be so stated in the record of proceedings, and made known, if the court think fit, to the commander of the vessel, who will, at his discretion, order another member of the court, or continue the member objected to.

5. The accused shall be furnished, before trial, with a written specification of the offence or offences for which he is to be tried. The specifications shall be as brief as practicable, without unnecessary repetition or circumlocution, or accumulation of epithets, but explicit; and all offences or misconduct committed at any one time by the same individual and intended to be charged against him, shall be comprised in the same specification, which shall be approved, before trial, by the officer ordering the court, and a duplicate of it to be annexed to the record.

6. The accused shall not be required to plead guilty or not guilty to the specification; but if a plea of guilty be made, the court may, at its discretion, admit testimony as to the character of the offender, or in extenuation of the offence. And, in any case, the court may find the accused guilty of the whole or any part of the misconduct charged, according to the evidence, and adjudge punishment for so much as shall be found proved.

7. Witnesses shall be summoned by the recorder through the executive officer of the vessel, and the summons shall be obeyed, unless disapproved by the commanding officer for some reason to be stated in the record.

8. The court, if requested by the accused, may allow a commissioned, warrant, or petty officer to appear as counsel, and cross-examine witnesses in his behalf; but no written defence or argument, nor any protracted oral defence or argument shall be admitted. Nor shall any testimony not clearly relevant be admitted, nor any documentary evidence be read to the court or appended to the record.

9. If more than one case be tried by the same court, the record of each case shall be separate, the order for convening the court shall be appended to the record of the first case, and be referred to in each subsequent record, so as to show that the proceedings of the court are continuous. And in each case the prescribed oath shall be administered anew to the members and the recorder of the court.

AMERICAN CODE OF SIGNALS ADOPTED FOR THE USE OF THE NAVY.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, April 14, 1855.

In order to facilitate the mode of communication at sea between ships-of-war and the merchant service, the American Code of Signals, by Henry J. Rogers, has been adopted for the use of the Navy, copies of which will be distributed by the proper bureau, among vessels of the United States Navy, as the Department may, from time to time, direct. The flags will be made at the yards or on board ship, as may be most convenient.

Commanding officers of the Navy will embrace every opportunity to familiarize the service with the use of these signals.

J. C. DOBBIN, Secretary of the Navy.

GENERAL ORDER.

HONORABLE DISCHARGES.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, April 7, 1855.

Whenever any seaman, ordinary seaman, landsman, or boy, who shall have received the "honorable discharge" from the navy authorized by the "Act to provide a more efficient discipline for the navy," approved March 2, 1855, (form of which has been prescribed by the Department,) shall, within three months from the date thereof, present said "honorable discharge" at any naval rendezvous, if he shall answer the description of such discharge, and shall be physically qualified, he shall be re-enlisted for three years, and, upon his transfer to a receiving ship, shall be entitled to receive three months' pay equal to that to "which he would have been entitled if he had been employed in actual service" in the rate specified in the "honorable discharge."

If the "honorable discharge" should have been lost, reference can be made to the files of the Department for corroboration that the person presenting himself did receive an "honorable discharge," and for a descriptive list of his person.

The recruiting officer will write on the face of the "honorable discharge," over his official signature, the date of re-enlistment. After the reception on board the receiving ship of the person re-enlisted, the commanding officer, also, will write on the face of the "honorable discharge," over his official signature, that the three months' pay has been credited or paid to him, with the date of such credit or payment, and the amount thereof.

To those re-enlisting under the "honorable discharge," the advance authorized by the General Order of the Department, dated August 11, 1854, will also be made

Should the person holding an "honorable discharge" prove physically disqualified, it will be so written by the recruiting officer on the face of the discharge, and such discharge shall not entitle the holder to be received under it.

In the re-enlistment of men under honorable discharges, regard will be had to the provisions of the Circular of March 25, 1851, in relation to enlistments.

On the returns now required to be made to the Department of enlisted mer from rendezvous and receiving ships, special reference will be made to those men who have been re-enlisted under an "honorable discharge," and from what vessel they received their discharge.

Commanding officers of vessels, upon returning from a cruise, when directed to discharge the whole or any part of the crew, will furnish to those who, in their judgment, are entitled to it under the law, an "honorable discharge," and separate returns will be made to the Department of the names and description of those to whom they have been given.

Blanks for the honorable discharges and return will be furnished by the Department, and great care should be taken that they are both accurately and fully filled out.

A yeoman, however, is not to be discharged until his accounts have been audited and approved of by the commandant of the yard, as required by the Ordnance Instructions and other general regulations or orders. If found correct, the commandant of the yard will then grant the "honorable discharge," if entitled to it in the opinion of the commanding officer of the vessel to which he belonged.

When invalids are sent to the United States from a foreign station, the commanding officer of the vessel to which they belonged will transmit a list of their names to the Department, stating the general character of each, and designating such as, in his opinion, are entitled, under the law, to the "honorable discharge," in order that the commandant of the station at which they may arrive in the United States may be directed to grant the said discharge to those deserving it. A duplicate of this list is to be sent also to the commandant of the station where they are to arrive.

When any seaman, ordinary seaman, landsman, or boy, shall be discharged at his own request, or for his own convenience, before the expiration of his term of enlistment, he shall not be entitled to the "honorable discharge."

CERTIFICATES OF DEATH OR DISABILITY.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, July 17, 1855.

In addition to the requirements of the General Order of the Navy Department of Febru*ary 17, 1851, the medical officers* of the navy, in all certificates of death or disability occurring in the naval service, are hereby directed to make a statement, in each case, of the facts connected therewith upon which they base their judgment that such death or disability originated "in the line of duty."

The Attorney General, in a circular of May 17, 1855, defines the term "line of duty" "to denote that an act of duty performed must have relation or causation, mediate or immediate, to the wound, the casuality, the injury, or the disease producing disability or death."

"FLEET CAPTAIN"—"FLAG LIEUTENANT."

NAVY DEPARTMENT, August 31, 1855.

The attention of the department having been recently drawn to the fact that orders issued by the commanders of squadrons to those under their command are frequently signed by officers designating themselves as "Fleet Captain" or "Flag Lieutenant," purporting to be "by order of the commander-in-chief of the squadron," the department directs that, hereafter, all orders in writing, of whatever nature, emanating from the commander of a squadron, shall be signed by such commander himself only.

COMMENCEMENT OF PAY OF OFFICERS.

Extract from a letter addressed to the Fourth Auditor of the Treasury by the Secretary of the Navy, dated October 23, 1855.

"I find on examination that the rules of this department in relation to the commencement of pay of officers promoted have varied. The prevailing practice seems to be to allow pay from the time to which the commission relates in giving rank. This has long been, and is now, the rule of the War Department, to which there is a determination to adhere. I think there should also, if possible, be uniformity in the rules of the two branches of the service.

"I am of opinion, therefore, that it is better for the present to allow the pay back to the period of rank.

"This need not interfere with the general order of June 9, 1853, applicable to special cases."

GENERAL ORDER.

ALLOTMENT OF PAY.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, January 2, 1856.

Hereafter, all persons enlisting for the navy, on being transferred to a sea-going vessel, will be allowed to allot only one-half of the rate in which they enlisted, without regard to the rating that may be given them on board the vessel to which transferred.

ISAAC TOUCEY, Secretary of the Navy.

GENERAL ORDER.

DOUBLE RATIONS TO MARINE OFFICERS. MARINES DOING OTHER DUTY.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, June 7, 1859.

Double rations will not hereafter be allowed to Marine Officers commanding Guards of the Receiving Ships at Boston, New York, and Norfolk; nor to the Marine Officer in command of the Guard at the Navy Yard gate in the city of Washington, D. C.

Marines serving on board vessels-of-war will not be diverted from their appropriate duties, or called upon to coal ship or work as mechanics, except in cases of emergency.

As occasions may arise when it may become necessary to employ Marines at the great guns, they shall be instructed as full guns' crews by their own officers, and may also be assigned as parts of ordinary guns' crews under other officers of division. But the Commanding Officer will be careful not so to assign Marines except in cases of necessity.

ISAAC TOUCEY, Secretary of the Navy.

GENERAL ORDER.

PROFESSIONAL AID BY MEDICAL OFFICERS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, August 17, 1859.

No order will be given to Medical Officers of the Navy to render professional aid to any person who is not attached to the naval service or on board a ship-of-war. The Department will confide in their humanity to respond to any appeal for their assistance whenever the requisite aid cannot be obtained elsewhere.

An exception may be made in favor of vessels in distress, when, if necessary to secure the requisite medical aid, the authority of the commander may be interposed.

ISAAC TOUCEY, Secretary of the Navy.

GENERAL ORDER.

UNIFORM OF LIEUTENANTS COMMANDING.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, August 23, 1859.

Lieutenants, while in command, will wear two stripes of gold lace, of usual width, around the upper edge of the cuff.

ISAAC TOUCEY, Secretary of the Navy.

GENERAL ORDER.

FLAG.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, September 26, 1859.

Captains in command of Navy Yards, who, by order of the Department, have commanded a squadron, will be allowed to wear the Flag authorized by the General Order of May 18, 1858, on the Receiving Ship attached to the station. Should there be no Receiving Ship attached to the station, then at any suitable place in the Navy Yard under their command.

The Senior Flag Officer of the Navy will wear his flag at the main.

ISAAC TOUCEY, Secretary of the Navy.

GENERAL ORDER.

EMPLOYMENT OF PILOTS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, December 15, 1859.

The Regulation of the Department of April 3, 1847, in relation to pilotage is hereby rescinded.

Hereafter ships-of-war will take pilots only when it is deemed necessary, and pay them such rates as the laws of the States, respectively, authorize for merchant vessels. Pilots will not be called on board until the ship is ready to proceed to sea, and will be paid only from that time. In coming from sea, the pilot will be discharged the moment his services are no longer absolutely necessary.

ISAAC TOUCEY, Secretary of the Navy.

NOTE.—The sea and other service affixed to the names of officers in the Register is computed to the 1st January, 1861. As a general rule, the "sea service" with which an officer is credited, is for duty performed under orders from the department, as part of the complement of a vessel-of-war, belonging to the Navy, in commission for sea-service. Officers on the Coast Survey are allowed sea service only for the time they are actually afloat. No credit is given for service in Revenue and Merchant vessels. In the column "unemployed," is included the time between date of warrant and date of first order from the department for service.

☞ The attention of officers is particularly called to the Orders and regulations published in the latter part of the Register.

Exemplary conduct incumbent on commanders of vessels.

Article 1. The commanders of all ships and vessels of war belonging to the Navy are strictly enjoined and required to show in themselves a good example of virtue, honor, patriotism, and subordination, and be vigilant in inspecting the conduct of all such as are placed under their command, and to guard against and suppress all dissolute and immoral practices, and to correct all such as are guilty of them, according to the usage of the sea service.

Divine service.

Art. 2. The commanders of all ships and vessels in the Navy, having chaplains on board, shall take care that Divine service be performed in a solemn, orderly, and reverent manner, twice a day, and a sermon preached on Sunday, unless bad weather or other extraordinary accidents prevent it; and that they cause all, or as many of the ship's company as can be spared from duty, to attend at every performance of the worship of Almighty God.

Punishment for certain scandalous offenses.

Art 3 Any officer or other person in the Navy who shall be guilty of oppression, cruelty, fraud, profane swearing, drunkenness, or any other scandalous conduct, tending to the destruction of good morals, shall, if an officer, be cashiered, or suffer such other punishment as a court-martial shall adjudge; if a private, shall be put in irons or flogged, at the discretion of the captain, not exceeding twelve lashes; but if the offense require severer punishment, he shall be tried by a court-martial, and suffer such punishment as said court shall inflict.

Penalty for breach of duty in battle, or on the probability of an engagement.

Art. 4. Every commander or other officer who shall, upon signal for battle, or on the probability of an engagement, neglect to clear his ship for action, or shall not use his utmost exertions to bring his ship to battle, or shall fail to encourage, in his own person, his inferior officers and men to fight courageously, such offender shall suffer death, or such other punishment as a court-martial shall adjudge; or any officer neglecting, on sight of any vessel or vessels of an enemy, to clear his ship for action, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial shall adjudge; and if any person in the Navy shall treacherously yield, or pusillanimously cry for quarters, he shall suffer death, on conviction thereof by a general court-martial.

Punishment for not observing orders, when preparing for battle.

Art. 5. Every officer or private who shall not properly observe the orders of his commanding officer, or shall not use his utmost exertions to carry them into execution, when ordered to prepare for, join in, or when actually engaged in battle; or shall at such time basely desert his duty or station, either then or while in sight of an enemy, or shall induce others to do so, every person so offending shall, on conviction thereof by a general court-martial, suffer death, or such other punishment as the said court shall adjudge.

EMPLOYMENT OF MECHANICS TO REPAIR MERCHANT VESSELS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, July, 1840.

Employment and compensation of mechanics to repair merchant vessels.

The practice of allowing the mechanics employed at the several navy-yards, and on board ships on foreign stations to repair vessels belonging to the merchant service of the United States, will in future be limited to cases where a refusal to do so would of necessity impose injurious delays or greatly increase the expenses upon the merchant vessel. In such cases the mechanics shall make no demand for any compensation, but receive only such as the owner, assignee, or master of such merchant vessel shall choose to give, and their commander is willing they should take. Officers of the Navy, in like cases, shall neither claim nor receive any compensation whatever.

Gratuitous assistance to be given.

In all cases of distress, gratuitous assistance is to be given as heretofore, to the fullest extent practicable.

NAVAL GENERAL ORDERS.

ARRESTS ON A FOREIGN STATION.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, December 15, 1841.

Arrests on a foreign station

Whenever an officer shall be arrested on a foreign station, it shall be the duty of the commander-in-chief of the station to order a court for his trial as soon as possible after he shall be notified of his arrest, and this he shall not refuse or delay, except for imperative reasons connected with the public service.

If such imperative reasons shall exist, so that a court-martial cannot be detailed and actually sit for the trial of the accused, his arrest may continue for thirty days after the commander-in-chief of the station shall be notified thereof, and no longer, and the accused shall then be returned to duty, unless, for sufficient reasons, the commander-in-chief shall otherwise direct; but he shall be again arrested, and shall be tried as soon as the condition of the service will admit of it.

No officer arrested on a foreign station shall be confined to his room nor restrained from the proper use of any part of the ship in which, before his arrest, he had a right to be, except the quarter-deck, unless such restraint shall be necessary for the safety of the ship, or the preservation of good order and discipline, and even in that case he shall be no further restrained than shall be necessary.

RIGHTS AND POWERS OF COMMANDERS OF SQUADRONS AND CAPTAINS OF FLAG-SHIPS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, April 22, 1842.

Commanders of squadrons and captains of flag-ships.

The frequent misunderstandings which have occurred between the commanders-in-chief of squadrons and the captains of their flag-ships, on the subject of their respective rights and powers; misunderstandings which result only from the fact that their true relation to each other has not yet been properly defined, have suggested to the department the propriety of expressing its own views upon the subject. The following general rule embraces these views:

The commander-in-chief of a squadron, having in command of his flag-ship an officer of equal grade with himself, holds the same relation to that ship as to every other ship of his squadron.

While it is impossible to specify all the powers of a commander-in-chief over the ship which bears his flag, or of the captain of a flag-ship in subordination to the powers of the commander-in-chief, a due observance of the spirit of the above rule will go far to prevent any conflict or collision between those officers.

The dignity of a commander-in-chief is lessened by his engaging in the details of duty of his particular ship, and the respect which ought to attach to the immediate captain of the ship is weakened by any interference with him in the rightful exercise of his authority.

The commander-in-chief of a squadron will find the best support to his own dignity and importance in maintaining the dignity and importance of the officers who are subordinate to him. While, therefore, his superiority must be always admitted, and his authority respected and obeyed, a due and prudent regard to the limitation above indicated, will tend strongly to preserve the discipline and harmony of the service.

REGULATION.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMMANDERS OF STEAM VESSELS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, February 26, 1845.

The following rules to be carried into effect in steamers.

Commanders of steam vessels will cause the following orders to be carried into effect in the vessels under their command, in addition to the general orders and regulations which apply to sailing vessels, or to the general service of the Navy.

Engineers to conform to orders.

First. Steam engineers of the Navy, when embarked in vessels, are to conform to the orders of the commanding officer of the vessel, and of the officer of the watch for the time being; but they are not, except in cases of great emergency, to be ordered to perform other duties than those immediately connected with the preservation, repair, or management of the engines and their dependencies.

One engineer to be on duty in engine room.

Second. When practicable, one engineer at least is always to be on duty in the engine room whenever the fires are lighted; and when more than one engineer is attached to the vessel one must be on board at all times ready for duty.

Engineers, firemen, and coal-heavers, to be arranged in watches.

Third. The engineers, firemen, and coal-heavers are to be arranged in watches, and when on watch are to be under the immediate direction of the engineer of the watch, and are not to be ordered on other duties than those connected with the engines, boilers, and their dependencies, except in cases of emergency.

Senior engineer to prepare watch bills.

Fourth. The senior engineer is to prepare and submit, for the approval of the commander, bills showing the specific duties of the respective engineers, firemen, and coal-heavers in their watches, for attending to and for cleaning the different parts of the engines and their dependencies, and he will give particular attention that the prescribed duties are performed in a proper manner, and, in case of misconduct or neglect, report offenders to the officer of the watch, or to the commander of the vessel, as the case may require.

Reports when engines are in operation.

Fifth. When the engines are in operation, reports are to be made hourly to the officer of the deck, whether the engines and their dependencies are in good order, and immediate notice must be given him, at any time, if anything should occur to require a change in the orders under which the engineer is then acting, or special attention to any particular object, to insure safety or more efficiency.

Firemen to be instructed.

Sixth. The firemen are to be instructed as far as may be practicable to qualify them for managing the engines and dependencies with safety, in case accident or other cause should prevent the attendance of an engineer.

Senior engineer to make daily examinations.

Seventh. The senior engineer on board must examine daily the engines and their dependencies, and all parts of the vessel which are occupied by them, or by stores for their use, and make immediate report should any defect or danger be discovered. He must give timely notice to the commander of the vessel of the probable wants of his department, and whenever articles are received for it, must carefully examine if they are of proper quality, and report any which, in his opinion, may be objectionable.

Inspection when steamer arrives in port.

Eighth. Upon the arrival of a steamer in port, an early inspection is to be made by the senior engineer, to ascertain if the engines, boilers, or their dependencies require repairs or cleaning, and will report forthwith to the commander of the vessel.

Repairs or cleaning to be made by the engineers, &c.

Ninth. When repairs or cleaning are required for the engines or boilers they are to be made, as far as practicable, by the engineers, firemen, and coal-heavers of the vessel, and they are to be employed on such duties in preference to coaling, if both should be necessary at the same time.

Force-pumps.

Tenth. The force-pumps, hose, and all other means for extinguishing fires must be always kept in good order and ready for immediate use, and so reported at the end of each watch by the engineer on duty, and the utmost care must be taken at all times in the arrangement of stores, the use of lights and fires, and the adoption of other precautionary measures to prevent the danger from fire, to which steamers are so much exposed.

Steam-log.

Eleventh. A steam-log is always to be kept when the vessel is moved by steam, which log is to be signed in the "column of remarks" by the engineers of the respective watches, at the expiration of their watch and at noon of each day by the senior engineer of the vessel.

Entries to be made in steam-log.

Twelfth. The engineer of the watch will be careful to note hourly on the steam-log all the information which the columns in it require, and to place in the "column of remarks" full information of the state of the weather and sea, and any accidents to or defects in the engines or their dependencies, the quality of the coal, or other circumstances, which may be useful for determining the powers and qualities of the vessel, and the engines, under the various circumstances to which they may be exposed. He will carefully note in it the draught of water of the vessel and immersion of the bucket-boards, just before going to sea and on arriving in port, and frequently when receiving coal or other stores.

Steam-log to be handed to commander daily.

Thirteenth. The steam log-book is to be handed to the commander of the vessel daily, by the senior engineer on board; and it shall be the duty of the said commander to examine the same, and when satisfied of its correctness to sign it at the end of every calendar month, or oftener should the vessel in the mean time arrive at or anchor in any port.

Steam-logs to be deposited at navy-yards for the use of steamers.

Fourteenth. Steam log-books, calculated to contain the log for one quarter of a year, and hydrometers, will be deposited at the respective navy-yards, for the use of steamers, upon proper requisitions. The commander of the vessel must transmit to the Secretary of the Navy, by the first safe opportunity after the close of the months of March, June, September, and December, the steam log-book for the preceding quarter, and whenever a steamer is placed in ordinary, for the period which has not been previously transmitted.

REGULATIONS.

Respecting the enlistment of firemen and coal-heavers.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, August 1, 1847.

No firemen or coal-heavers shall be shipped, as such, until they have passed a satisfactory examination, by one or more medical officers of the Navy, in respect to their health and vigor; nor shall firemen be so shipped until they have passed a satisfactory examination by one or more engineer officers of the Navy, upon their ability to manage fires properly with different kinds of fuel, and to use skillfully smiths' tools in the repair and preservation of steam machinery and boilers.

Enlistment of firemen and coal-heavers.

The firemen of the Navy shall hereafter be divided into two classes; and, until further orders, the pay of the first class shall be at the rate of thirty dollars a month; the pay of the second class at the rate of twenty dollars; and the pay of coal-heavers shall be at the rate of fifteen dollars, with one ration a day to each.

Firemen classified; their pay and that of coal-heavers.

Should any fireman or coal-heaver neglect his duties, or be unable to perform them, the commanding officer of the squadron, or, in his absence, the commanding officer of the vessel to which such fireman or coal-heaver belongs, may, if he deems it necessary, direct another person to perform them during the continuance of such neglect or disability, or until the place is supplied by a person of the proper rating; and the person so appointed shall receive the pay of the situation which he may thus fill. But the commanding officer shall, when it is practicable, direct second class firemen to succeed or supply the places of the first class; and the coal-heavers, if qualified, shall take the place of the second class firemen in the preference to other persons.

Neglect of or inability to perform their duties.

Firemen and coal-heavers, when unable to perform their duties, or when they neglect them, shall receive only a reduced pay—that is, firemen of the first class shall only receive the pay of firemen of the second; those of the second the pay of coal-heavers; and coal-heavers the pay of seamen so long as they neglect their duties, or are unable to perform them, or until duly discharged from the service.

To be placed on reduced pay when they neglect or are unable to perform their duties.

*It is to be understood, as a part of the conditions on which firemen and coal-heavers enter the Navy, that, in case any right to a pension should occur before any action of Congress shall be had on the subject, the rate of pension to a first class fireman shall not exceed that to which a boatswain's mate would be entitled; that of a second class fireman, the same as for a quartermaster; and that of a coal-heaver, the same as for a seaman.

Pensions to firemen or coal-heavers.

Firemen and coal-heavers should be shipped on articles which refer to these regulations, which shall, in all cases, be read to them before they sign the articles.

MEDICAL SURVEYS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, December 22, 1854.

Medical surveys.

The second section of the General Order of the department, approved September 27, 1851, prescribing the manner of holding medical surveys, is hereby revoked, and the following is substituted in lieu thereof:

NAVY DEPARTMENT, February 14, 1855.

Rank and precedence of Executive officers.

The exception in favor of "executive officers," when on duty, made in the General Orders of the Navy Department of August 31, 1846, and May 27, 1847, which orders were legalized by act of August 5, 1854, is construed to apply to said officers while in the discharge of their military duties on board the vessel at the station to which they are attached, but not on any other occasion.

DISBURSEMENTS BY PURSERS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, March 20, 1855.

Disbursements by Pursers.

The second section of the "Joint resolution for the relief of pursers, &c.," approved March 3, 1849, provides "that every disbursement of public moneys or disposal of public stores, made by order of any commanding officer of the Navy, which shall be objected to by the accounting officers of the Treasury, in the settlement of the accounts of any disbursing officer, shall nevertheless be allowed to such disbursing officer; and the commanding officer by whose order such disbursement or disposal was made, shall be held accountable for the same."

Advances by pursers to commanding offic's.

This enactment does not authorize an advance of public money by the purser to the commanding officer, or to any other person, on his order. The disbursement presupposes an indebtedness, and whether the objects for which the indebtedness accrued were sanctioned or not by law or regulation, the purser would be entitled to a credit for payment therefor, when made by order of the commanding officer. But the disbursement must be for some service rendered or article furnished. For instance: if a clerk, not allowed by law, be employed, or if an excess of the regulation-complement of cabin furniture, or if unauthorized provisions or stores of any kind be purchased, by direction of the commander, and by his order the purser has paid for such unauthorized service or supplies, the purser will receive a credit for the payment, and the commander will be held accountable.

In regard to advances or loans, however, the laws of January 21, 1823, and August 26, 1842, are not repealed or modified by the joint resolution of 1849. The sixth section of the act of August 26, 1842, declares "that it shall not be lawful for a purser in the Navy to advance or loan any sum or sums of money, public or private, or any article or commodity whatever, or any credit, to any officer in the naval service, under any pretense whatever." To allow a purser to advance or loan to a commanding officer on his simple order the funds provided for the expenses of the ship and wages of the crew, would be dangerous to the service and unsafe for the Treasury, leaving an open door for collusion and fraud. No credits will be allowed to pursers for advances or loans hereafter made by orders of commanding officers, no matter how frequent or peremptory such orders may be.

Approved: J. C. DOBBIN, Secretary of the Navy.

GENERAL ORDER.

SUMMARY COURTS-MARTIAL.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, April 4, 1855.

Rules and forms of proceeding of summary courts-martial.

In conformity with the ninth section of the "Act to provide a more efficient discipline for the Navy," approved March 2, 1855, the following regulations have been submitted to, and approved by, the President of the United States, and will be observed by summary courts-martial convened under the authority of the said act:

1. Summary courts-martial will adopt the same forms of proceeding and rules of evidence as naval general courts-martial, so far as they shall be applicable and not inconsistent with the conciseness and precision enjoined by the law, nor with the provisions of this General Order.

2. The form of convening a summary court-martial will be by a brief written order addressed by the commander of the vessel to the senior member of the court, stating the names and rank of the members of the court, and of the recorder, and of the time and place of meeting; and by written or verbal orders to the other members of the court and the recorder. The written order to the senior member will be appended to the record of the proceedings.

3. The record will state that the oath prescribed by the law was duly administered to each member and to the recorder, in the presence of the accused.

4. If objection is made by the accused to any member of the court, it will be so stated in the record of proceedings, and made known, if the court think fit, to the commander of the vessel, who will, at his discretion, order another member of the court, or continue the member objected to.

5. The accused shall be furnished, before trial, with a written specification of the offense or offenses for which he is to be tried. The specifications shall be as brief as practicable, without unnecessary repetition or circumlocution or accumulation of epithets, but explicit; and all offenses or misconduct committed at any one time by the same individual and intended to be charged against him, shall be comprised in the same specification, which shall be approved, before trial, by the officer ordering the court, and a duplicate of it to be annexed to the record.

6. The accused shall not be required to plead guilty or not guilty to the specification; but if a plea of guilty be made, the court may, at its discretion, admit testimony as to the character of the offender, or in extenuation of the offense. And, in any case, the court, may find the accused guilty of the whole or any part of the misconduct charged, according to the evidence, and adjudge punishment for so much as shall be found proved.

7. Witnesses shall be summoned by the recorder through the executive officer of the vessel, and the summons shall be obeyed, unless disapproved by the commanding officer for some reason to be stated in the record.

8. The court, if requested by the accused, may allow a commissioned, warrant, or petty officer to appear as counsel, and cross-examine witnesses in his behalf; but no written defense or argument, nor any protracted oral defense or argument shall be admitted. Nor shall any testimony not clearly revelant be admitted, nor any documentary evidence be read to the court or appended to the record.

9. If more than one case be tried by the same court, the record of each case shall be separate, the order for convening the court shall be appended to the record of the first case, and be referred to in each subsequent record, so as to show that the proceedings of the court are continuous. And in each case the prescribed oath shall be administered anew to the members and the recorder of the court.

AMERICAN CODE OF SIGNALS ADOPTED FOR THE USE OF THE NAVY.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, April 14, 1855.

American Code of Signals adopted for the Navy.

In order to facilitate the mode of communication at sea between ships-of-war and the merchant service, the American Code of Signals, by Henry J. Rogers, has been adopted for the use of the Navy, copies of which will be distributed by the proper bureau, among vessels of the United States Navy, as the department may, from time to time, direct. The flags will be made at the yards or on board ship, as may be most convenient.

Commanding officers of the Navy will embrace every opportunity to familiarize the service with the use of these signals.

GENERAL ORDER.

HONORABLE DISCHARGES.

NAVY DEPARFMENT, April 7, 1855.

Honorable discharges.

Whenever any seaman, ordinary seaman, landsman, or boy, who shall have received the "honorable discharge" from the Navy, authorized by the "Act to provide a more efficient discipline for the Navy," approved March 2, 1855, (form of which has been prescribed by the department,) shall, within three months from the date thereof, present said "honorable discharge" at any naval rendezvous, if he shall answer the description of such discharge, and shall be physically qualified, he shall be reënlisted for three years, and, upon his transfer to a receiving ship, shall be entitled to receive three month's pay equal to that to "which he would have been entitled if he had been employed in actual service" in the rate specified in the "honorable discharge."

If the "honorable discharge" should have been lost, reference can be made to the files of the department for corroboration that the person presenting himself did receive an "honorable discharge," and for a descriptive list of his person.

The recruiting officer will write on the face of the "honorable discharge," over his official signature, the date of reënlistment. After the reception on board the receiving ship of the person reënlisted, the commanding officer, also, will write on the face of the "honorable discharge," over his official signature, that the three months' pay has been credited or paid to him, with the date of such credit or payment, and the amount thereof.

To those reënlisting under the "honorable discharge," the advance authorized by the General Order of the department, dated August 11, 1854, will also be made.

Should the person holding an "honorable discharge" prove physically disqualified, it will be so written by the recruiting officer on the face of the discharge, and such discharge shall not entitle the holder to be received under it.

In the reënlistment of men under honorable discharges, regard will be had to the provisions of the Circular of March 25, 1851, in relation to enlistments.

On the returns now required to be made to the department of enlisted men from rendezvous and receiving ships, special reference will be made to those men who have been reënlisted under an "honorable discharge," and from what vessel they received their discharge.

Commanding officers of vessels, upon returning from a cruise, when directed to discharge the whole or any part of the crew, will furnish to those who, in in their judgment, are entitled to it under the law, an "honorable discharge," and separate returns will be made to the department of the names and description of those to whom they have been given.

Blanks for the honorable discharges and return will be furnished by the department, and great care should be taken that they are both accurately and fully filled out.

Yeoman not to receive his discharge until his accounts are settled.

A yeoman, however, is not to be discharged until his accounts have been audited and approved of by the commandant of the yard, as required by the Ordnance Instructions and other general regulations or orders. If found correct, the commandant of the yard will then grant the "honorable discharge," if entitled to it in the opinion of the commanding officer of the vessel to which to which he belonged.

When invalids are sent to the United States from a foreign station, the commanding officer of the vessel to which they belonged will transmit a list of their names to the department, stating the general character of each, and designating such as, in his opinion, are entitled, under the law, to the "honorable discharge," in order that the commandant of the station at which they may arrive in the United States may be directed to grant the said discharge to those deserving it. A duplicate of this list is to be sent also to the commandant of the station where they are to arrive.

When any seaman, ordinary seaman, landsman, or boy, shall be discharged at his own request, or for his own convenience, before the expiration of his term of enlistment, he shall not be entitled to the "honorable discharge."

Secretary of the Navy.

GENERAL ORDER.

REPORT OF SURVEYS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, July 7, 1855.

Senior officer in rank to prepare reports of surveys.

Hereafter, in all cases of surveys, it will be the duty of the officer superior in rank on the board, to prepare the report of such survey.

J. C. DOBBIN,
Secretary of the Navy.

GENERAL ORDER.

CERTIFICATES OF DEATH OR DISABILITY.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, July 17, 1855.

Certificate of death or disability.

In addition to the requirements of the General Order of the Navy Department of February 17, 1851, the medical officers of the Navy, in all certificates of death or disability occurring in the naval service, are hereby directed to make a statement, in each case, of the facts connected therewith upon which they base their judgment that such death or disability originated "in the line of duty."

Line of duty. The Attorney General, in a circular of May 17, 1855, defines the term "line of duty" "to denote that an act of duty performed must have relation or causation, mediate or immediate, to the wound, the casuality, the injury, or the disease producing disability or death."

CHAS. W. WELSH,
Acting Secretary of the Navy.

GENERAL ORDER.

"FLEET CAPTAIN"—"FLAG LIEUTENANT."

NAVY DEPARTMENT, August 31, 1855.

Fleet captain, flag lieutenant. The attention of the department having been recently drawn to the fact that orders issued by the commanders of squadrons to those under their command are frequently signed by officers designating themselves as "Fleet Captain" or "Flag Lieutenant," purporting to be "by order of the commander-in-chief of the squadron," the department directs that hereafter all orders in writing, of whatever nature, emanating from the commander of a squadron, shall be signed by such commander himself only.

J. C. DOBBIN,
Secretary of the Navy.

COMMENCEMENT OF PAY OF OFFICERS.

Extract from a letter addressed to the Fourth Auditor of the Treasury by the Secretary of the Navy, dated October 23, 1855.

Commencement of pay of promoted officers. "I find on examination that the rules of this department in relation to the commencement of pay of officers promoted have varied. The prevailing practice seems to be to allow pay from the time to which the commission relates in giving rank. This has long been, and is now, the rule of the War Department, to which there is a determination to adhere. I think there should also, if possible, be uniformity in the rules of the two branches of the service.

"I am of opinion, therefore, that it is better for the present to allow the pay back to the period of rank.

"This need not interfere with the General Order of June 9, 1853, applicable to special cases."

GENERAL ORDER.

ALLOTMENT OF PAY.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, January 2, 1856.

Allotments. Hereafter all persons enlisting for the Navy, on being transferred to a sea-going vessel, will be allowed to allot only one half of the rate in which they enlisted, without regard to the rating that may be given them on board the vessel to which transferred.

This rule will apply, also, to such recruits as may not have been transferred to a sea-going vessel.

J. C. DOBBIN.

GENERAL ORDER.

COMMUTATION PRICE OF RATIONS.

From and after the 1st of July last, the commutation price of rations to the officers and seamen of the Navy will be twenty-five cents; also to the officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians, and privates of the Marine Corps, attached to vessels for sea service, but not on shore or other duty.

J. C. DOBBIN.

LAWS.

[The following extracts from laws touching the duties of naval officers, passed at the last session of Congress, were omitted in a compilation of acts relating to the navy recently published.]

From the "Act to provide internal revenue to support the government, and to pay interest on the public debt."—Approved July 1, 1862.

SEC 86. And be it further enacted, That on and after the 1st day of August,* 1862, there shall be levied, collected, and paid on all salaries of officers, or payments to persons in the civil, military, naval, or other employment or service of the United States, including senators and representatives and delegates in Congress, when exceeding the rate of six hundred dollars per annum, a duty of three per centum on the excess above the said six hundred dollars; and it shall be the duty of all paymasters, and all disbursing officers under the government of the United States, or in the employ thereof, when making any payments to officers and persons, as aforesaid, or upon settling and adjusting the accounts of such officers and persons, to deduct and withhold the aforesaid duty of three per centum, and shall, at the same time make a certificate, stating the name of the officer or person from whom such deduction was made, and the amount thereof, which shall be transmitted to the office of the commissioner of internal revenue, and entered as part of the internal duties; and the pay-roll, receipts, or account of officers or persons paying such duty, as aforesaid, shall be made to exhibit the fact of such payment.

From an "Act to suppress insurrection, punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes."—Approved July 17, 1862.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That all slaves of persons who shall hereafter be engaged in rebellion against the government of the United States, or who shall in any way give aid or comfort thereto, escaping from such persons and taking refuge within the lines of the army; and all slaves captured from such persons, or deserted by them and coming under the control of the government of the United States; and all slaves of such persons found on [or] being within any place occupied by rebel forces and afterwards occupied by forces of the United States, shall be deemed captives of war, and shall be forever free of their servitude, and not again held as slaves.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That no slave escaping into any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, from any other State, shall be delivered up, or in any way impeded or hindered of his liberty, except for crime or some offence against the laws, unless the person claiming said fugitive shall first make oath that the person to whom the labor or service of such fugitive is alleged to be due is his lawful owner, and has not borne arms against the United States in the present rebellion, nor in any way given aid and comfort thereto; and no person engaged in the military or naval service of the United States shall, under any pretence whatever, assume to decide on the validity of the claim of any person to the service or labor of any other person, or surrender up any such person to the claimant, on pain of being dismissed from the service.

* Extended to September 1 by Secretary of the Treasury, as authorized.

An act to provide for the more prompt settlement of the accounts of disbursing officers.

That, from and after the passage of this act, any officer or agent of the United States who shall receive public money which he is not authorized to retain as salary, pay, or emolument, shall render his accounts monthly instead of quarterly as heretofore; and such accounts, with the vouchers necessary to the correct and prompt settlement thereof, shall be rendered direct to the proper accounting officer of the treasury, and be mailed or otherwise forwarded to its proper address within ten days after the expiration of each successive month. And in case of the non-receipt at the treasury of any accounts within a reasonable and proper time thereafter, the officer whose accounts are in default shall be required to furnish satisfactory evidence of having complied with the provisions of this act; and for any default on his part the delinquent officer shall be deemed a defaulter, and be subject to all the penalties prescribed by the sixteenth section of the act of August sixth, eighteen hundred and forty-six, "to provide for the better organization of the treasury, and for the collection, safe-keeping, transfer, and disbursement of the public revenue:" Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury may, if in his opinion the circumstances of the case justify and require it, extend the time hereinbefore prescribed for the rendition of accounts: And provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to restrain the heads of any of the departments from requiring such other returns or reports from the officer or agent subject to the control of such heads of departments as the public interest may require.

Approved July 17, 1862.

From "An act to define the pay and emoluments of certain officers of the army, and for other purposes."—Approved July 17, 1862.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That * * * no officer of the army or navy of the United States shall be paid mileage except for travel actually performed at his own expense, and in obedience to orders.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That all contracts made for, or orders given for, the purchase of goods or supplies by any department of the government shall be promptly reported to Congress by the proper head of such department, if Congress shall at the time be in session, and if not in session, said reports shall be made at the commencement of the next ensuing session.

SEC 14. And be it further enacted, That no contract or order, or any interest therein, shall be transferred by the party or parties to whom such contract or order may be given to any other party or parties, and that any such transfer shall cause the annulment of the contract or order transferred, so far as the United States are concerned: Provided, That all rights of action are hereby reserved to the United States for any breach of such contract by the contracting party or parties.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That every person who shall furnish supplies of any kind to the army or navy shall be required to mark and distinguish the same with the name or names of the contractors so furnishing said supplies, in such manner as the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy may, respectively, direct, and no supplies of any kind shall be received unless so marked and distinguished.

SEC. 16 And be it further enacted, That whenever any contractor for subsistence, clothing, arms, ammunition, munitions of war, and for every description of supplies for the army or navy of the United States shall be found guilty by a court-martial of fraud or wilful neglect of duty, he shall be punished by fine, imprisonment, or such other punishment as the court-martial shall adjudge; and any person who shall contract to furnish supplies of any kind or description for the army or navy he shall be deemed and taken as a part of the land or naval forces of the United States for which he shall contract to furnish said supplies, and be subject to the rules and regulations for the government of the land and naval forces of the United States.
SEC. 17. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States be, and hereby is, authorized and requested to dismiss and discharge from the military service, either in the army, navy, marine corps, or volunteer force in the United States service, any officer for any cause which, in his judgment, either renders such officer unsuitable for, or whose dismission would promote, the public service.
